FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Richard A. Cowen, and Theresa M. Petrone, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon Objections of Howard Kenner to Nomination Papers of Randolph Anderson, Jr., Candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party for the office of Representative in the General Assembly for the 24th Representative District of the State of Illinois, having convened on December 29, 1997, in City Hall, 121 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above entitled matter, finds that:

1. The said Electoral Board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

2. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objector and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing was held on these Objections commencing on December 29, 1997 and was continued from time to time.

5. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing: the members of the Electoral Board, the Objector, by counsel; and the Candidate, by counsel.

6. The Board assigned this matter to Hearing Examiner Lewis W. Powell for further hearings and procedings.

7. The Electoral Board ordered that an examination of the registration records be conducted by its clerks and agents under the Board's direction and supervision, in accordance with the laws of Illinois and the rules of the Board.

8. The Electoral Board directed all parties to appear and be present, either personally and/or by their authorized representatives during this records examination.

9. The Candidate and/or his duly authorized representatives were present during the examination of the registration records at all times.

10. The Objector and/or his duly authorized representatives were present during the examination of the registration records at all times.

11. The examination of the registration records of the Board was terminated at the request of the Charles Holiday, Assistant Supervisor of Binder Department on January 7, 1998. After examining 26 petition sheets, the Candidate had 248 valid signatures on those sheets. On petition sheet pages 27 through 76, there are 68 signatures not objected to. Therefore, the Candidate has at a minimum, 316 valid signatures, which is more than the minimum number required by law.

12. The Board has considered all evidence and arguments tendered by the parties.

13. The Board finds that the Candidate has 316 valid signatures on his Nomination Papers which exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures (300) needed to be placed on the ballot as a candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party for the office of Representative in the General Assembly for the 24th Representative District of the State of Illinois.

14. The Board further finds that the objections to the Candidate's Nomination Papers are overruled and that the Candidate's Nomination papers are valid.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of Howard Kenner to the Nomination Papers of Randolph Anderson, Jr., Candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party for the office of Representative in the General Assembly for the 24th Representative District of the State of Illinois are hereby OVERRULED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared VALID and the name of Randolph Anderson, Jr., Candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party for the office of Representative in the General Assembly for the 24th Representative District of the State of Illinois, SHALL be printed on the ballot for the General Primary Election to be held March 17, 1998.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, this 23rd day of January, 1998.

Langdon D. Neal, Chairman

Richard A. Cowen, Commissioner/Member

Theresa M. Petrone, Commissioner/Member
