FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Richard A. Cowen, and Theresa M. Petrone, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections ("Objections") of SALVATORE M. CHERESO and JOHN J. PALLOHUSKY to the nomination papers ("Nomination Papers") of JOHN R. VIDECKIS, candidate for the office of Alderman of the 38th Ward for the City of Chicago ("Candidate"), having convened on December 28, 1998, at 9:00 a.m., in the City Council Chambers, City Hall, Chicago, Illinois; and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.

2. The said Electoral Board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objectors and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing held on these Objections commenced on December 28, 1998 and was continued from time to time.

5. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing: the members of the Electoral Board, the Objectors SALVATORE M. CHERESO and JOHN J. PALLOHUSKY, by counsel; and the Candidate, JOHN R. VIDECKIS, by counsel.

6. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Examiner ANTHONY IOSCO for further hearings and proceedings.

7. Paragraph 5a of the Objector's petition alleges that the Candidate failed to file a statement of economic interests with the Cook County Clerk as required by law.

8. Paragraph 5b of the Objector's petition alleges that the Candidate failed to file a receipt with her Nomination Papers showing the filing of a statement of economic interests with the Cook County Clerk.

9. Section 10-5 of the Election Code (10 ILCS 5/10-5) provides that nomination papers are not valid if the candidate fails to file a statement of economic interests as required by the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act in relation to his candidacy with the appropriate officer by the end of the period for the filing of nomination papers unless he has filed a statement of economic interest in relation to the same governmental unit with that officer during the same calendar year as the year in which such nomination papers were filed. If the nomination papers of the candidate and the statement of economic interests of the candidate are not required to be filed with the same officer, the candidate must file with the officer with whom the nomination papers are filed a receipt from the officer with whom the statement of economic interests is filed showing the date on which such statement was filed. Such receipt shall be so filed not later than the last day on which nomination papers may be filed.

10. The Illinois Governmental Ethics Act requires that persons who are candidates for nomination or election to office in a unit of local government to file their statements of economic interest with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of the unit of local government is located. (5 ILCS 420/4A-101(g), 4A-106) Therefore, candidates for nomination or election to office in the City of Chicago are required to file their statements of economic interests with the Cook County Clerk.

11. Because statements of economic interests of candidates for nomination or election to the office of Alderman in the City of Chicago are required to be filed with the Cook County Clerk, and the nomination papers of those candidates are required to be filed with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners, those candidates are required by Section 10-5 of The Election Code to file with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners a receipt from the Cook County Clerk showing the date on which the candidates' statement of economic interests were filed. Such receipt was required to be filed with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners not later than the last day on which nomination papers were permitted to be filed, or December 14, 1998.

12. The Electoral Board finds that the Candidate, JOHN R. VIDECKIS, did file a statement of economic interests but such statement was not filed with the Cook County Clerk. Instead, the Candidate filed his statement of economic interests, with the receipt form attached, with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners on December 11, 1998.

13. The Electoral Board finds that because the Candidate did not file his statement of economic interests with the proper office, his Nomination Papers are invalid. O'Donoghue v. Cook County Officers Electoral Board, ___ Ill.App.3d ___, 692 N.E.2d 770 (First Dist. 1998); Havens v. Miller, 102 Ill.App.3d 558, 429 N.E.2d 1292 (First Dist. 1981); Sneed v. Board of Election Commissioners, 95 Ch 1140 (Cir.Ct. Cook Co. 1995)

14. The Electoral Board finds that the Candidate, JOHN R. VIDECKIS, failed to file with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners not later than December 14, 1998, a receipt from the Cook County Clerk showing the date on which the Candidate's statement of economic interests was filed.

15. The Electoral Board finds that the failure to file with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners a receipt showing that the Candidate filed a statement of economic interests with the Cook County Clerk invalidates the Candidate's Nomination Papers. Bolger v. Electoral Board of City of McHenry, 210 Ill.App.3d 958, 569 N.E.2d 628 (Second Dist. 1991); Mobley v. Beard, CBEC, 95-EB-MUN-7 (January 23, 1995); Geiren v. Norris, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-44 (January 17, 1995); Jackson v. Washington, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-85 (January 23, 1995); Williams v. Brown, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-131 (January 27, 1995); Robinson v. Nalls, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-181, (January 28, 1995).

16. The Electoral Board finds, therefore, that the Nomination Papers of the Candidate, JOHN R. VIDECKIS, are invalid and overrules paragraph 5a and sustains paragraph 5b of the Objector's Petition.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, that the Objections of SALVATORE M. CHERESO JOHN J. PALLOHUSKY to the Nomination Papers of JOHN R. VIDECKIS, candidate for election to the office Alderman of the 38th Ward for the City of Chicago are hereby SUSTAINED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared INVALID and the name of JOHN R. VIDECKIS, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 38th Ward for the City of Chicago, SHALL NOT be printed on the official ballot for the Municipal General Election for Mayor, City Clerk, City Treasurer and Alderman to be held on February 23, 1999.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, this Twenty-Second day of January, 1999.

Langdon D. Neal, Chairman

Richard A. Cowen, Commissioner

Theresa M. Petrone, Commissioner
