FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Richard A. Cowen, and Theresa M. Petrone, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections ("Objections") of JOSEPH NOVAK ("Objector(s)") to the nomination papers ("Nomination Papers") of ANNIE L.H. MILLER, candidate for election to the office of Ward Committeeman for the 1st Ward of the City of Chicago, Republican Party ("Candidate"), having convened on January 10, 2000, at 9:00 a.m., in Room 800, 69 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois; and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.

2. The said Electoral board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objectors(s) and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing held on these Objections commenced on January 10, 2000 and was continued from time to time.

5. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Examiner BARBARA GOODMAN for further hearings and proceedings.

6. The Objector(s) and the Candidate were directed by the Electoral Board's Call served upon them to appear before the Hearing Examiner on the date and at the time designated in the Call. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing: the Objector(s), JOSEPH NOVAK, by counsel; and the Candidate, ANNIE L.H. MILLER, by counsel.

7. The Candidate filed a motion to strike the Objector's Petition alleging that the Objector's petition is invalid because the prayer for relief requested that "the name of Annie L.H. Miller as a candidate for election to the office in the 27th Ward be not printed upon the official ballot..." The Candidate is seeking election to the office of Ward Committeeman in the 1st Ward in the City of Chicago.

8. The Electoral Board finds that the Objector's petition makes reference to the fact that the Candidate is seeking election to the office of Ward Committeeman in the 1st Ward in the caption of the objector's petition and several times in the first few paragraphs of the petition. In Ryan v. Landek, 159 Ill.App.3d 10, 512 N.E.2d 1 (First Dist. 1987) the court ruled that one mistyped digit in a candidate's nomination papers was not sufficient to have his name removed from the ballot. The Electoral Board finds that one typographical error in the Objector's petition does not invalidate render the petition void. The Candidate's motion to strike the Objector's Petition is, therefore, denied.

9. The Hearing Examiner ordered that an examination of the registration records be conducted by clerks and agents under the Board's direction and supervision, in accordance with the laws of Illinois and the rules of the Board.

10. The Hearing Examiner directed all parties to appear and be present, either personally and/or by their authorized representatives during the record examination.

11. The Candidate or her duly authorized representative(s) were present during the examination of the registration records.

12. The Objector(s) or his duly authorized representative(s) were present during the examination of the registration records.

13. The examination of the registration records was completed and the Electoral Board hereby adopts and incorporates by reference the results of the records examination conducted by its clerks and agents. The written report of the result of the registration records examination is contained in the Electoral Board's file in this case and is available for inspection upon request of a party.

14. The Electoral Board has considered all evidence and arguments tendered by the parties.

15. The Electoral Board finds that:

    a. The minimum number of valid signatures required by law for placement on the ballot for the office in question is 13;

    b. The number of purportedly valid signatures appearing on the nominating petition filed by the Candidate total 30;

    c. The number of signatures deemed invalid because of objections sustained total 17;

    d. The remaining number of signatures deemed valid total 13;

16. The Candidate offered an affidavit and a copy of a driver's license to rebut the sustained objection to the signature of Mary Ann Dickens on Sheet 1, Line 3 of the nominating petitions. The ruling for this signature was changed from sustained to overruled, giving the Candidate a total of 14 valid signatures on the nominating petitions.

17. The Electoral Board finds that the number of valid signatures appearing on the Candidate's nominating petition following completion of the records examination exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to placed upon the official ballot as a candidate for election to the office of Ward Committeeman for the 1st Ward of the City of Chicago, Republican Party.

18. The Electoral Board finds, therefore, that paragraph(s) 3-6 of the Objectors(s)' Petition are sustained in part and overruled in part as more fully indicated in the results of the records examination.

19. For the reasons stated above, the Electoral Board finds that the Nomination Papers of ANNIE L.H. MILLER are valid.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of JOSEPH NOVAK to the Nomination Papers of ANNIE L.H. MILLER, candidate for election to the office of Ward Committeeman for the 1st Ward of the City of Chicago, Republican Party, are hereby OVERRULED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared VALID and the name of ANNIE L.H. MILLER, candidate for election to the office of Ward Committeeman for the 1st Ward of the City of Chicago, Republican Party, SHALL be printed on the official ballot for the General Primary Election to be held on March 21, 2000.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, this 28th day of January, 2000.

Langdon D. Neal, Chairman

Richard A. Cowen, Commissioner

Theresa M. Petrone, Commissioner
