FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Theresa M. Petrone, and Richard A. Cowen, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections ("Objections") of REGINA WOODS ("Objector") to the nomination papers ("Nomination Papers") of DENNIS PATRICK HEALY, candidate for the office of Alderman of the Thirty-ninth Ward of the City of Chicago ("Candidate") to be elected at the Municipal General Election to be held on February 25, 2003, having convened on December 30, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., in Room 800, 69 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter, finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.

2. The said Electoral Board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objector and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing held on these Objections commenced on December 30, 2002 and was continued from time to time.

5. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Examiner WILLIAM P. JONES for further hearings and proceedings.

6. The Objector and the Candidate were directed by the Electoral Board to appear before the Hearing Examiner on the date and at the time designated in the Trial Call. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing; the Objector, REGINA WOODS, by counsel; and the Candidate, DENNIS PATRICK HEALY, pro se.

7. The Objections allege that the Candidate failed to file a Statement of Economic Interests in relation to his candidacy within the calendar year with the Cook County Clerk as required by law prior to the end of the filing period for Alderman of the City of Chicago and that the Candidate failed to file a receipt evidencing the filing of said Statement with his Nomination Papers before the end of the period for filing said Nomination Papers.

8. The Candidate filed a motion to strike the objections, contending that he had filed a Statement of Financial Interests with the City of Chicago Board of Ethics within the calendar year 2002. The Candidate's motion to strike was denied by the Hearing Examiner.

9. The Hearing Examiner has recommended that the Electoral Board find that the Candidate did not file a Statement of Economic Interests with the Cook County Clerk until December 17, 2002, which is one day after the last day for filing nomination papers for the office of Alderman of the Thirty-ninth Ward of the City of Chicago. He further recommends that the Board find that the requirements of Section 10-5 of the Election Code providing that a candidate timely file a Statement of Economic Interests with the appropriate officer is mandatory and that the failure to file such a statement and the receipt therefore renders the Candidates' Nomination Papers invalid under Bolger v. Electoral Board, 210 Ill.App.3d 958, 569 N.E.2d 628 (2nd Dist. 1991).

10. The Board finds that:

A. Section 10-5 of the Election Code (10 ILCS 5/10-5) provides that nomination papers are not valid if the candidate fails to file a statement of economic interests as required by the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act in relation to his candidacy with the appropriate officer by the end of the period for the filing of nomination papers unless he has filed a statement of economic interest in relation to the same governmental unit with that officer during the same calendar year as the year in which such nomination papers were filed. If the nomination papers of the candidate and the statement of economic interests of the candidate are not required to be filed with the same officer, the candidate must file with the officer with whom the nomination papers are filed a receipt from the officer with whom the statement of economic interests is filed showing the date on which such statement was filed. Such receipt shall be so filed not later than the last day on which nomination papers may be filed.

B. The Illinois Governmental Ethics Act requires persons who are candidates for nomination or election to office in a unit of local government to file their statements of economic interest with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of the unit of local government is located. (5 ILCS 420/4A-101(g), 4A-106) Therefore, candidates for nomination or election to office in the City of Chicago are required to file their statements of economic interests with the Cook County Clerk.

C. Because statements of economic interests of candidates for nomination or election to the office of Alderman in the City of Chicago are required to be filed with the Cook County Clerk, and the nomination papers of those candidates are required to be filed with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners, those candidates are required by Section 10-5 of The Election Code to file with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners a receipt from the Cook County Clerk showing the date on which the candidates' statement of economic interests were filed. Such receipt was required to be filed with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners not later than the last day on which nomination papers were permitted to be filed, or December 16, 2002.

D. The Electoral Board finds that the Candidate failed to file with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners not later than December 16, 2002, a receipt from the Cook County Clerk showing the date on which the Candidate's statement of economic interests was filed.

E. The Electoral Board finds that the Candidate failed to file a statement of economic interests in relation to his candidacy with the Cook County Clerk on or before December 16, 2002.

F. The Electoral Board finds that the Candidates filing of a 2002 Statement of Financial Interests with the City of Chicago Board of Ethics pursuant to City of Chicago ordinances does not satisfy the requirements of Section 10-5 of the Election Code or of the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act.

G. The Electoral Board finds that the failure to file with the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners a receipt showing that the Candidate filed a statement of economic interests with the Cook County Clerk invalidates the Candidate's Nomination Papers. Bolger v. Electoral Board of City of McHenry, 210 Ill.App.3d 958, 569 N.E.2d 628 (Second Dist. 1991); Mobley v. Beard, CBEC, 95-EB-MUN-7 (January 23, 1995); Geiren v. Norris, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-44 (January 17, 1995); Jackson v. Washington, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-85 (January 23, 1995); Williams v. Brown, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-131 (January 27, 1995); Robinson v. Nalls, CBEC, 95-EB-ALD-181, (January 28, 1995).

11. The Electoral Board finds, therefore, that the Nomination Papers of the Candidate are invalid and sustains the Objector's Petition.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of REGINA WOODS to the Nomination Papers of DENNIS PATRICK HEALY, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the Thirty-ninth Ward of the City of Chicago are hereby SUSTAINED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared INVALID and the name of DENNIS PATRICK HEALY, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the Thirty-ninth Ward of the City of Chicago, SHALL NOT be printed on the official ballot for the Municipal General Election to be held on February 25, 2003.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, this Fourteenth day of January, 2003.

Langdon D. Neal, Chairman

Theresa M. Petrone, Commissioner

Richard A. Cowen, Commissioner
