FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Richard A. Cowen and Marisel A. Hernandez, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections ("Objections") of Barbara J. WashingtonBetty Jo Swanson ("Objectors"), to the nomination papers ("Nomination Papers") of Virgil S. Means, candidate for the office of Alderman for the City of Chicago ("Candidate") to be elected at the Municipal General Election to be held on February 22, 2011, having convened on December 6, 2010, at 9:00 a.m., in Room 800, 69 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter, finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.

2. The said Electoral Board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objectors and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing held on these Objections commenced on December 6, 2010 and was continued from time to time.

5. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Officer June A. Brown for further hearings and proceedings.

6. The Objectors and the Candidate were directed by the Electoral Board's Call served upon them to appear before the Hearing Officer on the date and at the time designated in the Call. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing: the Objectors, Barbara J. Washington and Betty Jo Swanson, by attorney, James P. Nally; and the Candidate, Virgil S. Means, pro se.

7. One of the issues presented in the Objector's petition was whether the nominating papers were invalid because the Statement of Candidacy was not filed simultaneously with the other nominating papers.

8. The Electoral Board hereby finds that the Hearing Officer correctly concluded that a Statement of Candidacy does not have to be filed simultaneously with the nominating papers so long as it is filed within the filing period. Barnes v Benas, 95 EB-ALD-214, CBEC January 27, 1995.

9. The Hearing Officer ordered that an examination of the voter registration records be conducted by clerks and agents under the Board's direction and supervision, in accordance with the laws of Illinois and the rules of the Board.

10. The Hearing Officer directed all parties to appear and be present, either personally and/or by their authorized representatives, during this records examination.

11. The Candidate and/or her duly authorized representative was present during the examination of the registration records.

12. The Objectors and/or his duly authorized representative was present during the examination of the registration records.

13. The examination of the registration records was completed and the Electoral Board hereby adopts and incorporates by reference the results of the records examination conducted by its clerks and agents. The written report of the result of the registration records examination is contained in the Electoral Board's file in this case and a copy has been provided or made available to the parties.

14. The Electoral Board finds that:

A. The minimum number of valid signatures required by law for placement on the ballot for the office in question is 179.

B. The number of purportedly valid signatures appearing on the nominating petition filed by the Candidate total 261.

C. The number of signatures deemed invalid because of objections sustained as a result of the records examination total 75.

D. The remaining number of signatures deemed valid as a result of the records examination total 186.

15. The Electoral Board finds that the number of valid signatures appearing on the Candidate's nominating petition following completion of the records examination exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to be placed upon the ballot as a candidate for the office of Alderman of the 17th Ward of the City of Chicago.

16. The Hearing Officer conducted a hearing to allow the Objectors an opportunity to present evidence in support of his Rule 8 motion objecting to the Board's clerk's findings during the records examination.

17. The Hearing Officer has tendered to the Electoral Board a report and recommended decision. Based upon the evidence presented, the Hearing Officer found that the Candidate's Nomination Papers contained 186 signatures, which exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to be placed upon the ballot as a candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 17th Ward of the City of Chicago, and that the Candidate's Nomination Papers should be found valid.

18. The Electoral Board, having considered the evidence and arguments tendered by the parties and the Hearing Officer's report of recommended findings and conclusions of law, hereby adopt the Hearing Officer's recommended findings and conclusions of law.

19. For the reasons stated above, the Electoral Board finds that the Candidate has a sufficient number of valid signatures on her nominating petitions and that the Nomination Papers of Virgil S. Means are, therefore, valid.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of Barbara J. Washington and Betty Jo Swanson to the Nomination Papers of Virgil S. Means, candidate for the office of Alderman of the 17th Ward of the City of Chicago, are hereby OVERRULED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared VALID and the name of Virgil S. Means, candidate for the office of Alderman of the 17th Ward of the City of Chicago, SHALL be printed on the official ballot for the Municipal General Election to be held on February 22, 2011.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, on January 7, 2011.
