FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Richard A. Cowen, and Marisel A. Hernandez, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections ("Objections") of Richard E. Bolin ("Objector") to the nomination papers ("Nomination Papers") of Angelo Townsend, candidate for the office of Alderman of the 21st Ward of the City of Chicago ("Candidate") to be elected at the Municipal General Election to be held on February 22, 2011, having convened on December 6, 2010, at 9:00 a.m., in Room 800, 69 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter, finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.

2. The said Electoral Board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objector and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing held on these Objections commenced on December 6, 2010 and was continued from time to time.

5. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Officer Gerald B. Mullin for further hearings and proceedings.

6. The Objector and the Candidate were directed by the Electoral Board's Call served upon them to appear before the Hearing Officer on the date and at the time designated in the Hearing Schedule. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing: the Objector, Richard E. Bolin, by attorney, James P. Nally; and the Candidate, Angelo Townsend, pro se, .

7. The Hearing Officer has tendered to the Electoral Board a report and recommended decision. Based upon the evidence presented, the Hearing Officer found that the Candidate was ineligible to run for office because at the time he filed his nominating papers, the candidate was indebted to the City of Chicago for unpaid parking tickets.

8. The evidence established that a number of tickets were outstanding at the time the Candidate filed his nominating papers. Specifically, ticket 9177819110 issued on 9/2/09, ticket 0058420699 issued on 8/15/10; ticket 9090252627 issued on 5/4/10 and 0057570775 issued on 6/6/10 were all outstanding, due and owing.

9. Section 3.1-10-5(b) of the Illinois Municipal Code provides that:

> (b) A person is not eligible for an elective municipal office if that person is in arrears in the payment of a tax or other indebtedness due to the municipality or has been convicted in any court located in the United States of any infamous crime, bribery, perjury, or other felony.

The objector based his argument on the case of Cinkus v the Village of Stickney Municipal Officers Electoral Board, 886 N.E.2d 1011, 228 Ill. 2d 200 (2008).

In Cinkus, a candidate, John Cinkus ("Cinkus") sought to run for village trustee. After Cinkus filed his nominating papers, he received notice by way of an objection that he owed a debt to the village in the amount of $100. The objection alleged that Section 3.1-10-5(b) precluded Cinkus from running for office because he was in violation of said section. The court determined that the indebtedness resulted in the candidate being ineligible to run for office.

The Cinkus case represents a departure from prior rulings in which it was held that an outstanding debt precluded candidates from taking office but did not preclude them from running for office. Since the Cinkus case, the current state of the law is that a candidate is precluded from running for municipal office if, at the time he files his nominating papers, he owes a debt to the municipality in which he is running.

9. The Electoral Board, having considered the evidence and arguments tendered by the parties and the Hearing Officer's report of recommended findings and conclusions of law, hereby adopts the Hearing Officer's recommended findings and conclusions of law.

10. For the reasons stated above, the Electoral Board finds that the Candidate's Nomination Papers are invalid.

11. The Electoral Board further finds that objections were also filed against the Candidate's Nomination Papers in Related Case 11 EB-ALD-232.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of Richard E. Bolin to the Nomination Papers of Angelo Townsend, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 21st Ward of the City of Chicago, are hereby SUSTAINED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared INVALID and the name of Angelo Townsend, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 21st Ward of the City of Chicago, SHALL NOT be printed on the official ballot for the Municipal General Election to be held on February 22, 2010.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, on January 13, 2011.

Langdon D. Neal, Chairman

Richard A. Cowen, Commissioner

Marisel A. Hernandez, Commissioner
